FACULTY

ROLAND A. FRANTZ
President,
B. A., B. D.,
Religion.

School Yearbooks have a wonderful way of helping us to recall some of the most interesting and profitable years of our life. Many of the experiences of those years would slip into forgetfulness were they not recalled to our minds through our Concordia Yearbooks. This or that picture, a passing bit of information, even the comments under the photographs - all these help to make the joy and the blessing of Concordia very real as the years go on.

Life at Concordia each year affords profitable experiences and unique opportunities. Not the least of our many profitable experiences is the privilege of living and working and enjoying leisure time in a Christian atmosphere and fellowship, and it is safe to say that in later years this will be the most appreciated of all of the worthwhile experiences that Concordia has afforded.

In addition the current school year has again afforded the Concordia staff and student body some unique opportunities. Over and above all the opportunities that we had to enrich our lives academically and socially were those unique privileges of growing spiritually and equipping ourselves more fully for present or future service in the Kingdom of our Lord.

And so, bound up with this Yearbook is the sincere wish that its pages will help you to recall many times the profitable experiences and the unique opportunities that are a part of life at Concordia.

Achievement earns a pride that is justifiable, particularly when such achievement helps and pleases others. The 675,000 members of Aid Association for Lutherans wish to acknowledge your accomplishments on this memorable occasion. They send their best wishes for your continued success. These AAL members know about achievement, too, and they enjoy a pride that is equally justifiable. Their society, which has served Lutheran families for 60 years by providing them with financial peace-of-mind, is America's largest fraternal life insurance society and ranks among the top three percent of all life insurance organizations. You will find AAL members most anxious to share this success with you . . . by modestly boasting of the Special Difference—LOWER NET COST—which they enjoy with AAL.
